

Charles Robinson Watson

Transcription of obituary published in the Primitive Methodist Magazine by A.J.B.

At the age of sixty, on November 16th, our brother breathed his last at Riccall. His last illness was long and wearying, yet he was ever patient and resigned. He was interred in Riccall Churchyard November 18th, the service being conducted by Rev. A.J. Bull and Mr. D.S. Blair. A memorial service was conducted by Rev. A.J. Bull on December 1st.

Born at Thorton-le-Clay, our brother was converted in our Norton Chapel at the age of twenty. He lived in different places in Yorkshire and held various offices in connection with our Church. During his thirteen years' residence at Gilling, a lasting work was done by him. Methodism owes a debt it can never pay to such men as Charles R. Watson, for their saintly lives and quiet, but lasting work.

References

Primitive Methodist Magazine 1913/244